What We Are Up To

Our room has been transformed into the land of gingerbread complete with a gingerbread house. This week, we will read and compare several different versions of the gingerbread man story. We will also bake a real gingerbread man and hope that he doesn't run away!

Learning Is Fun

This week, your child will be bringing home a special gingerbread man based on the book "The Gingerbread Man Loose in School". He will be enclosed in an envelope. Please address the envelope and mail him to a relative or friend who would be willing to take a few pictures of the gingerbread man enjoying a special event or landmark. There is also a self-addressed envelope enclosed for the recipient to return the gingerbread man and the pictures to school. Each child should receive some mail shortly after Christmas. We have had gingerbread men visit the beach, fly on a plane, ride on a lobster boat, and visit the statue of liberty. When they return, we will locate their destination on a map. Thanks for your help with this fun project.

Other News

The children would love to have a parent or special friend help decorate their own gingerbread house on Friday, December 9 from 11:30-12:30.

We would like to ask each family to send in two cans of white frosting (not whipped) and some pretty candy for the children to use when decorating their gingerbread houses next week. Please send this to school by Tuesday, December 6.
